In The Incurable Romantic, Frank Tallis recounts the extraordinary stories of patients who are, quite literally, madly in love: a woman becomes utterly convinced that her dentist is secretly infatuated with her and drives him to leave the country; a man destroys his massive fortune through trysts with over three thousand prostitutes -- because his ego requires that they fall in love with him; a beautiful woman's pathological jealousy destroys the men who love her. Along the way, we learn a ...

The Incurable Romantic: And Other Tales of Madness and Desire is at once terrifying and fascinating. It is terrifying because the stories are real and anyone could unwittingly invite an incurable romantic, a deeply disturbed or unbalanced person into their romantic life and become that person's obsession or plaything for ego gratification.

The Incurable Romantic tells the stories of patients whose love/desire/obsession has become problematic for them (and often others). This is mostly a sympathetic collection of tales of mental illness related to romantic and/or sexual feelings (not love), but it leaves you thinking when love actually crosses the line to madness.
