In order to conclude the month of celebrations of International Children's Day, we would like to give special review of a classic children book that had been awarded as the Newberry Medal recipient in 1955, The Wheel on the School by Meindert Dejong. This heartfelt lovely tale took place in Shora, a little fishing village in Holland. There lived six school children who all went to the same school: Jella, the biggest and the huskiest of all children; Eelka, who was fat, clumsy, and slow ...

Meindert Dejong (Author of The Wheel on the School)

The Wheel on the School by Meindert Dejong. This is my all time favorite children's book (recommended ages: 2 nd grade to adult). Winner of the Newberry Prize in 1955, illustrated by Maurice Sendak, and so winsomely full of humor, suspense, character, and hope, that my 8 year old son and I could not put it down (although, at times, he had to hide under the covers because of the dramatic suspense).
